Born October 4, 1946 in Boston, MA he grew up and lived most of his working life in Boston, MA. He moved to Allcity in August, 1985. In 1970, along with his brother Calvin, he established a home mail order business baking and shipping gourmet chocolate chip cookies. The family enterprise took its name, Smith Bakery, Inc., from their Boston home of many years. Local residents joined the frenzied family on the chocolate chip cookie team every holiday season as the house filled with shipping boxes and chocolate chip cookie aroma pervaded the neighborhood. Under the philosophy of "Stir a little, Bake a lot", the Chocolate Chip Cookie Company flourished and developed a nationwide customer base of chocolate chip cookie fans. The next generation of Smith's has now taken over, but Joe's enthusiastic spirit continues.
